Registration deadline:
One week following Regional Tournament

The 2018 Pacesetter North Dakota Youth Basketball State Championships will be held in Jamestown, where the champions and runners-up from each of North Dakota's 2 regions will battle for the over-all North Dakota state championship. The state tournament will be a Final Four-style format with a third place game, so all teams will play two full longer games with 8-minute stopped time quarters.

The top two teams will be invited to represent North Dakota in the Pacesetter Great Five-State Championships at the newly-renovated Target Center in Minneapolis in an 8-team bracket competing against the top teams from Iowa, Minnesota, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: Teams are asked to notify Pacesetter by the Tuesday after they qualify at the regional tournament and register by SATURDAY.

Teams may mail in the form below with payment or call the Pacesetter office to get a link to register online.
